

Vacancy
Executive Director,
IWRAW ASIA PACIFIC
KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia

The International Women's Rights Action Watch Asia Pacific (IWRAW Asia Pacific) is an international NGO based in Kuala Lumpur. We work through collaborative projects, primarily with women's organisations in the Asia Pacific region, to promote the domestic application of international human rights standards in relation to women's rights. For this, we utilise the CEDAW Convention and increasingly, where relevant, other human rights treaties too.

The Post and Requirements

We are looking for an individual with strategic thinking and management strengths with at least 10 years of related work experience, half of which should have been spent in this region. Applicants need to possess an honours/postgraduate degree in social sciences or law with a keen interest and involvement in NGO work and women's rights.

Term of Reference of Executive Director

The candidate will bring the following professional qualifications and personal attributes.

- A demonstrated commitment and experience in advancing the human rights of women.
- Familiarity with the UN Human Rights System.
- Successful experience in the leadership of a comparable non-profit women's organization and regional or international experience in promoting and managing a women's human rights programme is essential.
- Capacity to plan strategically an advocacy programme on the human rights of women.
- Successful management experience overseeing professional level staff, enabling long term goals and through consultative processes.

- Strong organizational, planning, implementation and monitoring skills as well as a facility for detail and follow-through; the capacity to be focused, and orderly.
- Excellent communication and writing skills in English with the ability to motivate and deal with people at all levels, board members, staff, NGOs, Government and donors
- Successful fundraising experience.
- Ability to build coalitions among diverse groups of people.

Salary and other benefits will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Application letters together with your CV and copies of academic transcripts, work references, and samples of papers written, as well as expected salary, should be sent by email or post to:
